

DHARMA JYOTHI SOCIAL CENTRE

Vamanjoor P.O., Mangalore - 575 028.
Karnataka, India

Giving awareness to the people through education, to enable them to avail their rights, on their own

F: +91824 220077

30/08/2017

Dear Krausova Drahuse,

Greetings and all good wishes to you! You have generously collaborated with us to uplift our underprivileged children through education. The flowers of kindness that you have offered to will continue to grow leaving behind a strong fragrance of love and compassion.

I am happy to inform you that your sponsored child Roshal Preethi has completed Bachelor of Commerce and is looking out for a job. Soon she will be financially independent and is able to earn for herself and the family. On behalf of Roshal Preethi and her family members we are grateful to you for helping her to study and giving her a bright future. Enclosed please find a letter, photo and drawing from your sponsored child.

We had organized lots of programmes in the Communities for the development of the families, women and children. Awareness on Local Governance, Self Employment, family conflicts, Nutrition programme, finance management in the families, Skill developmental trainings, Product Exhibition, Free Medical Health camps like eye camps cum free distribution of the Spectacles and HB check up camps are held for the benefit of poor and the needy. Health care service cards, health Insurance, awareness on Communication and mass media the latest technologies, a forestation, National festivals, Clean Environment, Plastic Bann, Marriage Act were prearranged to the Self Help Groups. National festivals like Independence Day, to appreciate the age old tradition "Aatid Onji dina" was celebrated in a grand manner. To foster brotherhood and harmony Christmas, Ramzan and Deepavali was celebrated. We had a good celebration of International Women's day for which 500 women witnessed this event and for Christmas Programme 1500 attended in 3 places.

Thank you for your kind support and may God bless you for your generosity.

Yours affectionately,

Sr. Joel Lasrado
Co-ordinator